

Zero Tolerance Behaviour Policy

All participants in ACBA competitions must accept responsibility for their behaviour.

ACBA reserves the right to ask any coach, manager, player parent or spectator to immediately leave the venue should they:

- Wilfully question or challenge the rulings of the referees
- Berate or abuse referees
- Berate or abuse players
- Wilfully question or challenge a coach or team manager
- Wilfully question or challenge the score bench or officials
- Berate or abuse other parents or spectators
- Direct profane language towards any referee, player, official, coach or spectator
- Display conduct which is inappropriate in a sporting environment.

No warnings will be given in the event of the above action becoming necessary.

Any such ejection or failure to leave the venue will be referred to ACBA management and may result in further formal actions or penalties.

The adoption of this zero-tolerance policy is essential to keep ACBA a safe competitive environment for all participants in a fun and positive atmosphere.
